SAVINGS BANKS

Are now regulated by the statutes 9 Geo. IV., c. 92; 3 Will. IV., c. 14; 5 and 6 Will. IV., c. 57; and 7 and 8 Vict., c. 83.

The amount allowed to be invested by any one Depositor cannot exceed £30 in any one year, ending on the 20th November, nor more than £150 on the whole; when the sum amounts to £200 no interest is payable. The rate of interest payable to the Trustees and Managers is £3. 5*s. per cent. per annum,* and that payable to Depositors must not exceed £3. 0*s.* 10*d. per cent. per annum.*

Trustees or Treasurers of any Charitable Provident Institution or Society, or Charitable Donation, or Bequest for the maintenance, education, or benefit of the Poor, may invest sums not exceeding £100 per annum, and not exceeding £300, principal and interest included. Friendly Societies, whose Rules have been duly certified pursuant to the Acts of Parliament relating thereto, may deposit the whole, or any part of their funds. The several provisions of these statutes, as far as they relate to the deposits and depositors, will be found in the rules of every Savings Bank.

In the following pages the Editor has arranged the different SAVINGS BANKS according to Counties; and after a Summary of the Number of Depositors, &c., and the Average Amount in each County, the Institutions will be found in alphabetical order, with the date of the establishment of each, the place where held, the days and hours when open, and the Rate of Interest payable to Depositors.

The population of each County is taken from the Census of 1841, the number of Open Accounts and Amount of Deposits from the latest official returns, viz., 20th November, 1844; and reference is made to those Savings Banks which grant Annuities.

On the 20th November, 1844, there were 577 Savings Banks established in the United Kingdom, &c., viz.:—504 in Great Britain, and 73 in Ireland; and the amount of deposits, including interest, was £29,504,864; the number of Accounts open, 1,012,047, of which 564,642 were those of Depositors under £20 each, the average amount being under £7, and the number of Depositors exceeding £200 each was only 3044. If the number of Friendly Societies in direct account with the Commissioners for the reduction of the National Debt be added, the GROSS TOTAL at page 320 will show the number of Accounts to be ONE MILLION TWELVE THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-FIVE, and the sum invested, THIRTY-ONE MILLION TWO HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-FIVE THOUSAND SIX HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX POUNDS.

616413

Since the 20th November, 1844, 12 Savings Banks have been established — viz, 9 in England; 2 in Scotland; and 1 in Ireland.

At page 322, &c., will be found the gross amount of all Sums, Stocks, Funds, Annuities, and Exchequer Bills standing in the names of the Commissioners on account of Savings Banks and Friendly Societies; at page 321, an account of all sums deposited in the MILITARY or REGIMENTAL SAVINGS BANKS, on the 31st March, 1844; and at page 325, &c., an Alphabetical Index to the various Savings Banks in the United Kingdom.

Every information respecting, and Forms of Rules, &c., for, the establishment, &c. of FRIENDLY SOCIETIES, BUILDING SOCIETIES, ENDOWMENT SOCIETIES, LOAN SOCIETIES, SAVINGS BANKS and GOVERNMENT ANNUITY SOCIETIES, may be obtained, free of expense, on applying by letter, post paid, directed to the BARRISTER APPOINTED TO CERTIFY THE RULES OF FRIENDLY SOCIETIES, LONDON.
